

Rotary Club of West St. Louis County

Missouri, USA

presents the 2019 Community Business Awards

The Purpose:

Local businesses play a vital role in the lives of our communities. The purpose of the Rotary Club of West St. Louis County Community Business Awards Program is to recognize their contribution as it aligns with the Object of Rotary; to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise.

Awards Categories:

Up to three businesses and one individual (or family) will be honored each year.

Why nominate a business or business leader for the WSLC Rotary Community Business Award?

How often do we regret our failure to praise our local businesses for the positive influence they have on our communities? This is your opportunity to recognize a business or business leader for service to our community.

Eligibility:

- Nominee must be in business for at least five years located in the club's Service Area:
 - Winchester, Manchester, Ballwin, Wildwood, Clarkson Valley, Ellisville, Eureka and Valley Park

Who may nominate a business?

- A member of the community
- A fellow business, or business professional
- A member of West St. Louis County Rotary
- A civic or community leader

What are the criteria for nomination?

- The most important criterion is service to the community.
- The nominee will reflect the spirit of the Rotarian's 4-Way Test in the way they operate their business.
 - Is it Truth?
 - Is it Fair to all concerned?
 - Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?
 - Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?

How do you nominate a business or business leader?

1. Complete nomination form
2. Write a letter of recommendation for nomination of the nominee.
3. Include one additional letter of support.
4. Letters of support from other community members are encouraged.

What should be included in the letter of nomination?

Simply state why you feel the business or individual you nominated should be a candidate for the Rotary club of WSLC Community Business Award. It may include how the business or business leader has benefited their local community, their professionalism, their activities in and beyond their business including community involvement, and their ability to inspire by their service to others.

Please submit nominations to the West St. Louis County Rotary Club. PO Box 1431, Ballwin, MO 63022
